Congratulations! So you want to get married or form a civil partnership? The most important decision has been made but what do you do next?

This brochure has been developed to help you understand the legal formalities required and the many choices available to make your wedding or civil partnership a truly memorable occasion.

You may wish to have a small, intimate ceremony conducted as quickly and as quietly as possible, or perhaps you are planning ahead for a larger celebration to include your families and friends.

Whatever your arrangements, whatever your choice, our staff are committed to providing the very highest standards of service. We will ensure that your marriage or civil partnership is carried out both in accordance with the law and, just as importantly, according to your wishes. We will guide you through the legal formalities and we will be on hand to ensure your day runs smoothly, leaving you with memories to treasure.

The Redcar & Cleveland area is an ideal setting for weddings or civil partnerships, bordered by the beautiful scenery of the North Yorkshire National Park, the Cleveland Hills and a scenic stretch of the vibrant coastline of North East England.

In addition to Civil Marriage Ceremonies, which include same-sex marriages, and Civil Partnership Ceremonies, we offer other opportunities to help you celebrate and mark special occasions in your life. So, if you are interested in a Naming Ceremony or a Renewal of Vows Ceremony, we would love to hear from you, too.

Our welcome is warm, our staff are professional and our location is inspirational. We look forward to meeting you.
The Marriage Law allows you choice regarding your wedding venue and the style of marriage ceremony.

You may choose to marry by Civil Ceremony in a Register Office or in an approved venue. Or you may wish to marry in the Church of England or Church in Wales or by a religious ceremony in another place of worship or religious building.

The law now allows same sex couples to be married in a Register Office or an approved premise in England and Wales. It also allows religious organisations (except the Church of England or the Church in Wales) to hold same sex marriage ceremonies providing they specifically opt in to do so with written authorisation from their governing authority to allow for a place of worship to be registered for same sex weddings. It is a matter for the individual religious organisations whether they wish to do so.

If you are considering having a same sex marriage please contact your local Register Office who will be able to advise and guide you and are always there to help.

You may marry in any Register Office or approved venue of your choice in England and Wales so you can book your wedding in this area even if you do not live in the Redcar & Cleveland Registration District.

www.redcar-cleveland.gov.uk/ceremonies
The Register Office is located within the Redcar & Cleveland Leisure and Community Heart, a landmark development in the heart of Redcar, a coastal town with spectacular scenery, a dramatic coastline and inspiring built environment.

The Ceremony Room, with its modern, contemporary feel, mood lighting, luxurious furnishings and seating is an outstanding venue able to accommodate up to a maximum of 80 people.

The Superintendent Registrar’s Room is perfect for a small, fuss-free, intimate ceremony for the parties and the two witnesses. Both rooms have disabled access and hearing loops fitted.

We have facilities for playing music on CD and have a selection we can offer you. Alternatively, we are happy for you to bring your own music. There will be an opportunity to have photographs during the signing of the register after the ceremony.
Weddings in Churches or other Religious Buildings

If you wish to be married in a Church of England or Church in Wales you should first speak to a Minister of the Church. He or she will advise you about Banns of Marriage and any other legal formalities.

If you wish to be married at any other religious building you will need to contact the Superintendent Registrar of the district in which you live to make arrangements to give your legal Notice of Marriage (see details on this page under the heading ‘Notice of Marriage’). Please contact the minister or ring the Register Office if you need advice.

The law now allows same sex couples to be married in a Register Office or an approved premise in England and Wales. It also allows religious organisations (except the Church of England or the Church in Wales) to hold same sex marriage ceremonies providing they specifically opt in to do so with written authorisation from their governing authority to allow for a place of worship to be registered for same sex weddings. It is a matter for the individual religious organisations whether they wish to do so.

If you are considering having a same sex marriage please contact your local Register Office who will be able to advise and guide you and are always there to help.
Having provisionally booked your wedding at an approved venue or the Register Office you now need to give Notice of Marriage.

Before you can marry you are legally obliged to give a ‘Notice’ of your intention to marry to the Superintendent Registrar of the district in which you live. You must have lived in that district for at least 7 clear days before a notice can be given. You must then allow 28 clear days to elapse before the marriage can take place.

Where one of the parties to a marriage by superintendent registrar’s certificate is, or both parties are, subject to immigration control, they must both attend together at a specified registration district to give their notices. Please contact your local Register Office for advice. Two Notices of Marriage must be given, one for each of the parties to the marriage. You must each attend personally as the notice must be signed by you.

A fee is payable for giving the notice. There is an appointment system for giving your Notice of Marriage. Please ring the Register Office for an appointment and to check the current fee.

You cannot ask a friend or relative to give a Notice of Marriage for you. You will be interviewed by the Superintendent Registrar and asked questions relating to you and your partner’s name, age, nationality, address and marital status. You will need to produce certain documents (see details on page 8 under the heading ‘Documents Required’).

The rules governing marriages in other countries are complex and vary from country to country. Please contact the Superintendent Registrar for advice if you are considering arranging your wedding abroad.
When you give your Notice of Marriage you MUST take with you documents to prove your nationality, age, name, marital status and address. Please note – the documents you produce should be original documents – photocopies are not acceptable.

Acceptable forms of evidence are:
- Full valid passport
- Full birth certificate
- Decree Absolute – if you have been married before and have been divorced
- Death Certificate of your previous spouse. Your marriage certificate may also be needed in some cases if you have been widowed
- Change of Name Deed – if you have ever changed your name
- Proof of residence – in the form of a household bill/bank statement/driving licence, etc.

You must also take the current fee – check with the Register Office beforehand for details of current fees.

If either party to the marriage is under 18 years, a consent form will be required. Please contact the Superintendent Registrar before giving notice.

“We will guide you through the legal formalities and we will be on hand to ensure your day runs smoothly, leaving you with memories to treasure.”

THE MARRIAGE CEREMONY

Whether you are getting married in the Register Office or an approved venue, our staff will be with you to guide you through the ceremony.

You will be interviewed in private before the ceremony by the Registrar who will check the details to be entered in the register. If you are marrying in the Register Office, the Registrar will ask you for the relevant fee.

Your ceremony will be conducted by the Superintendent Registrar who will guide you throughout. You will be asked to repeat the declaratory and contracting words. There is nothing to learn or to worry about.

Once the ceremony is completed, the Registrar will enter the details in the register. You will be asked to check the details in the register carefully as mistakes cannot be easily rectified. You will then both sign the register.

You will be presented with your marriage certificate and there will be an opportunity for photographs.

FEES

There are nationally set fees for giving Notice of Marriage to the Superintendent Registrar and for the Registrar to attend a marriage in a Register Office. However, the local authority sets the fee for the Superintendent Registrar and the Registrar to attend a marriage in an approved venue. Please contact us for details of the fees payable.
MARRIAGE OF SAME SEX COUPLES

The law now allows same sex couples to be married in a Register Office or an approved premise in England and Wales. It also allows religious organisations (except the Church of England or the Church in Wales) to hold same sex marriage ceremonies providing they specifically opt in to do so with written authorisation from their governing authority to allow for a place of worship to be registered for same sex weddings. It is a matter for the individual religious organisations whether they wish to do so.

If you are considering having a same sex marriage please contact your local Register Office who will be able to advise and guide you and are always there to help.

CIVIL PARTNERSHIPS

WHAT IS A CIVIL PARTNERSHIP?

Rather than marriage, same-sex couples can choose to have their relationship legally recognised by the formation of a civil partnership.

A civil partnership can be formed either at a Register Office or an approved venue of your choice within England and Wales. Please note that no religious service can take place whilst the registrar is officiating at the formation. The purpose of forming a civil partnership is to make a public declaration of life-long commitment, of love and dedication between two people, and should be entered into with serious intent. The occasion can be a ceremony shared with family and friends, or if you prefer, just the signing of a schedule in the presence of two witnesses.

You can now have a civil partnership formation on religious premises providing the religious premises have been approved by the Local Authority.

HOW TO REGISTER A CIVIL PARTNERSHIP

Any couple wishing to form a civil partnership need to register their intention at the Register Office in the district in which they live, regardless of where the formation is to take place. Although provisional bookings can be made, you must give 28 clear days notice before your civil partnership can be formed.

Civil partnership formations on religious premises will still remain the secular signing of the schedule by the parties to the proposed civil partnership, the two witnesses and the Civil Partnership Registrar. However the law now provides for a non statutory religious ceremony which may take place before or after the civil partnership formation.

If you are considering having your civil partnership on religious premises we would advise that you contact your local Register Office for advice and guidance at the earliest opportunity.
Having provisionally booked your civil partnership at an approved venue or the Register Office, you now need to give notice of your intention to form a civil partnership. You are legally obliged to give a notice of your intention to form a civil partnership to the Superintendent Registrar of the district in which you live.

Where one or both parties to a proposed civil partnership are subject to immigration control they must attend together at any specified Register Office to give their Notices of Civil Partnership. They must both have completed the qualifying period of residence in a registration authority, but this need not be the authority in which notice is given. Please contact your local Register Office for advice.

NOTICE OF CIVIL PARTNERSHIP

You must have lived in that district for at least 7 clear days before a notice can be given. Two notices must be given – one for each of the civil partners. You must each attend personally, as the notice must be signed by you. A fee is payable for giving the notice. There is also an appointment system in place for giving your notice. Please ring the Register Office for an appointment and to check the current fee.

You cannot ask a friend or relative to give a Notice of Civil Partnership for you. You will be interviewed by the Superintendent Registrar and asked questions relating to you and your partner’s name, age, nationality, address and marital or civil partnership status. You will need to produce certain documents. (See ‘Documents Required’ page 16).
DOCUMENTS REQUIRED

When you give your Notice of Civil Partnership, you MUST take with you documents to prove your nationality, age, name, address and marital or civil partnership status. Please note – the documents you produce should be the original documents – photocopies are not acceptable.

Acceptable forms of evidence are:
- Full birth certificate
- Full valid passport
- Decree Absolute – if you have been married before and have been divorced
- Civil Partnership Dissolution or Annulment – if you have been in a civil partnership previously
- Death Certificate of previous civil partner/spouse AND, if you were previously married or in a civil partnership, your Marriage Certificate/Civil Partnership Certificate
- Change of Name Deed – if you have changed your name
- Proof of residence – in the form of a household bill/bank statement/driving licence etc.

You must also take the current fee – check with the Register Office beforehand for details of current fees.

“A CIVIL PARTNERSHIP IS A COMMITMENT, FORMED BY TWO PEOPLE OF THE SAME SEX, GIVING LEGAL RECOGNITION OF THEIR RELATIONSHIP..”

www.redcar-cleveland.gov.uk/ceremonies
Whether you are having a civil partnership in the Register Office or an approved venue, our staff will be with you to guide you through the ceremony.

You will be interviewed in private before the ceremony by the Civil Partnership Registrar who will check the details to be entered in the Civil Partnership Schedule. If you are having your civil partnership formation in the Register Office, the Civil Partnership Registrar will ask you for the relevant fee.

The ceremony can be a way of involving your families and friends. The registration of your civil partnership is part of the ceremony so your guests can share the happy moment with you.

Your ceremony is conducted by the Civil Partnership Registrar and the registration will take place at the end of the ceremony. You are not required by law to go through a ceremony to form your civil partnership if you do not wish to.

You must however, bring two credible witnesses with you, even if you do not wish to go through a ceremony. The witnesses must be present when you sign the Civil Partnership Schedule AND must also sign the schedule.

There will be an opportunity for photographs to be taken.

FEES

There are nationally set fees for giving Notice of Civil Partnership to the Superintendent Registrar, and for the Civil Partnership Registrar to attend a civil partnership in a Register Office. However, the local authority sets the fee for the Civil Partnership Registrar to attend a civil partnership at an approved venue. Please contact us for details of the fees payable.
RENEWAL OF MARRIAGE VOWS

This ceremony is for any married couple who wish to celebrate renewing their marriage vows in a unique and personal ceremony. Often these ceremonies are associated with a special wedding anniversary, such as the tenth, twenty-fifth, fortieth, etc. but the ceremony is just as appropriate for couples at any stage of marriage.

Renewing vows can be particularly relevant to those who have been through a period that put a strain on their relationship but now wish to celebrate their renewed commitment to each other.

The ceremony may also be suited to couples who have married abroad but were unable to have their family and friends with them at the time. It is an opportunity to have a ceremony where friends and family can be invited to share in the occasion.

The ceremony can include readings, music, re-dedication of rings – the choice is up to you! You will be given a souvenir certificate signed by yourselves and any other special guests.

PLEASE NOTE – THE RENEWAL OF VOWS CEREMONY HAS NO LEGAL STATUS

www.redcar-cleveland.gov.uk/ceremonies
The birth of a new baby is a very special event in your life. You may wish to celebrate the occasion with a gathering of family and close friends by arranging a Naming Ceremony to welcome your newborn into the family and wider community.

The Naming Ceremony provides a dignified and meaningful way to announce the names you have chosen for your baby and an opportunity to make promises of commitment to nurture and support the child.

You will have the opportunity to decide who else takes part – children, supporting adults, etc. The ceremony can include readings, music and the giving of gifts.

Any parent can arrange a Naming Ceremony whether married or not. Ceremonies can also be used to welcome adopted or step-children into the family.

Please note – the Naming Ceremony has no legal status

This is Redcar & Cleveland
If you choose to marry in an approved venue you should, firstly, contact the proprietor to make a provisional booking and, secondly, immediately contact the Superintendent Registrar of the district in which the venue is situated to ensure registration staff are available to officiate at your wedding.

We will do our utmost to accommodate you at the time and date you prefer. However, as most venues and Register Offices are taking provisional bookings up to two years ahead, your choice may be restricted at popular times. Please contact the Register Office to check the relevant fees payable.

The Spa Hotel has three function rooms which will appeal to our wedding couples; The Waves Room, a modern, airy and inviting room is licensed for 60 guests, our Conservatory, with spectacular views across the bay, is licensed for 60 and our grand Pavilion Suite is licensed for 130 and is suitable for larger ceremonies. Wedding couples can expect their wedding to truly be a unique, intimate and memorable experience, and with 26 bedrooms they will be able to share the day with friends and family from near or far. The Spa Hotel offers carefully constructed packages to suit all couples and each one includes the key elements needed for a magical day - and if you are still looking for something different we also offer bespoke packages tailored to your requirements.

The beautiful little town of Saltburn by the Sea is the perfect spot for a seaside wedding.
